H A G U E, April 10.

THEY write from Cologne of the 6th Instant, that Count Konigsegg, Great Dean of the Chapter, was unanimously chosen Elector of Cologne that Morning.

Berlin, April 7. The Elbe has risen six Inches higher than in 1736, and overflowed Pretsch, Orgau, Wittemberg, and Meissen: Three Streets in the last mentioned Town, and one of its Suburbs, are intirely under Water. Two Bridges in the Mulda, near Wurtzen, are broken by the torrent. The Desolation of the Country cannot be expressed.

Hanau, April 10. According to the last Letters from Cassel, that Capital has suffered considerably by the late Siege. The magnificent Inclosure near the Gate of Moulin, and that of Anneberg, are intirely ruined; and in the City there are several Streets and Quarters, where a single House is scarcely to be found that has not been damaged by the Cannon or the Bombs.

L O N D O N.

Extract of a Letter from Frankfurt on the Oder, March 30.

"We have been so often amused with Rumours of Peace, that we are now cautious how we give credit even to the strongest Appearances of it. The Convention, which you no doubt have heard of, is religiously observed, and both Russians and Prussians live in perfect Amity, and seem to forget that they were so lately cutting each others throats; but whatever the Soldiers may do, the poor Inhabitants of Pomerania will long remember the Russian Visit; Families, who, from easy Circumstances, are reduced to Beggary; Fathers and Husbands butchered by the inhuman Cossacks: Virgins sacrificed to their brutal Lust; Houses plundered, and the little Money found in them carried away, and their valuable Moveables sold for the best Bidder; Corn trodden under Foot, or when green, as Provender for their Horses; and some of the Calamities which that unhappy Country groans under, and which a Peace of 20 Years will hardly remove. The misfortunes of a War have indeed been alleviated by charitable Contributions from abroad, particularly from England; that generous and humane People, tho' hardly sensible of the Horrors of War, as to themselves, have a tender Feeling for the Misery of their Fellow-Creatures; a Remittance from thence of between 4 and 500 l. Sterling, having lately assisted thro' Hamburg for that Purpose.—Could Princes see this horrid Picture with their own Eyes, there is no doubt but, remembering the Divine Precept of loving their Neighbours as themselves, they would quickly be induced to sheath the sword."

The following Declaration, in the Name, and on the Part of her Majesty the Empress Apostolic Queen of Hungary and Bobemia, was made and signed at Paris the 26th of March 1761, by her Minister at that Court, the Count of Stahrenberg, and was delivered at London the 31st of March, by Prince Galitzin, Envoy Extraordinary from the Empress of all the Russias.

DECLARATION of her Majesty the Empress Apostolic Queen of Hungary and Bobemia.

THE Dispositions for Peace, very agreeable to the Sentiments of all the Parties engaged in the War, which the Kings of England and Prussia shewed last Year, having met with Difficulties, that prevented their Success, the Courts of Vienna, Petersburg, France, Stockholm, and Warsaw, are unanimously agreed to invite those of London and Berlin to resume a Negotiation so salutary for the Happiness of the World, and which must interest the Humanity of all the Powers at War.

In this View, and in order to their being able to proceed to the Re-establishment of Peace, they propose the assembling of a Congress, to which they think it may be proper to admit only the Plenipotentiaries of the principal belligerent Parties, with those of their Allies. If the Kings of England and Prussia adopt this Method, her Majesty the Empress Queen, the Empress of Russia, the Most Christian King, the King of Sweden, and the King of Poland, Elector of Saxony, propose the City of Augsbourg for the Place of a Congress, observing, that their Majesties point out Augsbourg no otherwise than as a Town within Distance of all the Parties concerned, which, from its Situation, appears to suit with the Convenience of all the States; and that they will not reject the Choice of another City in Germany, if their Britannic and Prussian Majesties may deem it more convenient.

The Empress Queen, the Empress of Russia, the Most Christian King, the King of Sweden, and the King of Poland, Elector of Saxony, declare, moreover, that they have chosen the Plenipotentiaries, who will be intrusted with the Care of their Interests at the Congress, in Hopes that the King of England, the King of Prussia, and their Allies, will, on their Part, speedily make Choice of their respective Ministers, that the Negotiation may not be deferred.

The Simplicity of this Declaration, which, for the general Welfare, the Courts of Vienna, Petersburg, France, Stockholm and Warsaw, have determined to make to the Courts of London and Berlin, gives them Hopes, that their Britannic and Prussian Majesties will be pleased, by a speedy Answer, to make their Sentiments known, upon an Object so essential to the Repose and Happiness of Europe.

Done at Paris, the 26th of March, 1761, by Order, and in the Name, of her Imperial, Royal, and Apostolic Majesty.

COUNT STAHREMBERG.

N. B. A like Declaration with this, in the Name, and on the Part of their Majesties the Empress of all the Russias, the Most Christian King, the King of Sweden, and the King of Poland, Elector of Saxony, has been made and signed on the same Day as this; to wit, That of the Empress of Russia, by Prince D. P. Galitzin; that of the Most Christian King, by the Duc de Choiseul; that of the King of Sweden, by the Baron de Cbeffer; and that of the King of Poland, Elector of Saxony, by M. de Fontenay: And they were all delivered at London at the same Time, that is to say, on the 31st of March, by Pr. Galitzin.

The following Counter-Declaration was signed at London the 3d of April Instant, and was delivered on the same Day to Prince Galitzin, Envoy Extraordinary from the Empress of all the Russias, to be transmitted by him to Paris.

THE Dispositions of their Britannic and Prussian Majesties for the Re-establishment of the general Tranquility of Europe, having been steady and sincere, could not have undergone any Alteration through the Space of Time which has elapsed since their Declaration of the 25th of November, 1759.

Their Majesties therefore, with Satisfaction, accept the offer of the assembling of a Congress at Augsbourg, contained in the five Declarations made at Paris the 26th of March last, and delivered at London the 31st of the same Month, in the Name, and on the Part of their Majesties, the Empress Queen, the Empress of all the Russias, the most Christian King, the King of Sweden, and the King of Poland, Elector of Saxony.

The Courts of London and Berlin equally acquiesce in the Clause of this Declaration, which relates to the Rule that is proposed to be laid down, in regard to the Admission of the Plenipotentiaries, who shall have a Right to be received at this Congress.

For the Rest, as their Zeal for the Advancement of the salutary Work of a general Pacification, perfectly corresponds with that which appears to animate the Courts of Vienna, Petersburg, Versailles, Stockholm and Warsaw, their Britannic and Prussian Majesties will not delay to name instantly their Plenipotentiaries, being disposed to concur, with one and the same Pace, in every Thing that may accelerate the Opening of the Congress, which has been offered to them.

In the Name, and by Order of the King,

London, April 3, 1761.

B U T E.

N. B. The same Counter-Declaration as this, for the Empress of Russia, the Most Christian King, the King of Sweden, and the King of Poland, Elector of Saxony, was made and signed the same Day as this; and they were all delivered at the same Time to Prince Galitzin, to be transmitted by him to Paris.

A Letter from a Gentleman on board the Le-nnox, off Fort St. David's, dated the 26th of May, says, "After a Passage of seven Months, we were obliged to stay upon the Coromandel Coast during the Time of the Monsoons, a Thing so dangerous, that Ships seldom attempt it, and the Shaftsbury, by which this comes, is the first Ship that has been upon the Coast bound for England, during which Time Mr. Cornish having the Command, was not idle; for he sent the Marines, and what Seamen he could spare, on Shore, took Karikal, a Place mounting 135 Pieces of Cannon; from thence he went and took Chillingburg, a small Place, but of great Consequence to the French; by which, and burning the Haerlem, a French 64 Gun Ship, in Pondicherry Road, he has gained great Honour.

"The only News I have to tell you is, that Part of our Squadron have blocked up, in Pondicherry Road, a 36 Gun Frigate, two Indiamen, and two Country Ships, which we shall attempt burning in a few Days, Fireships being ready for that Purpose; and that Colonel Coote is making all Expedition to begin the Siege of Pondicherry, being in the Possession of all the Country round; and our Fleet, consisting of eleven Sail, in Sight of the Place, it must inevitably fall, unless their Fleet, of which there is little Danger, should relieve it."

The Ocean Man of War, launched the 21st Instant at Chatham, is look'd upon as one of the best built Ships in the Navy; she has a Figure Head, representing Old Ocean, the God of the Seas and Rivers, with an Urn in his Hands, out of which he is pouring the Rivers into the Sea, attended by young Neptune, Nereids, Tritons, &c. most beautifully carved, painted, and finished in a masterly Manner.

The following is an exact Account of the Articles consumed at Dinner only, by the Voters of a small Borough on the Day of Electing their Members, independent of Veal, Mutton, Poultry, &c. and a preparatory Breakfast, which last alone amounted to 750 l. Consumption at Dinner, 980 Stone of Beef, 315 Dozen of Wine, and 72 Pipes of Ale, and 365 Gallons of Spirits converted into Punch.

Some large Transports, supposed for the East-Indies, are coming out of Dock, and are to be fitted for Sea with all Expedition.

Letters from Leghorn of the 21st ult. advise, That by a Ragusian Ship from Tripoli they had an Account, that two Polaccas of 18 Guns each, a Frigate of 22 Guns, a Tartan of 6 Guns and two Xebecs of 18 and 8 Guns, sailed from that Port to cruise against the Christians.

By the Dutch Mail, which arrived this Morning, we are informed, that the Prussians are every where in Motion; and that their Troops had gained several small Advantages over the Austrians, in Saxony.

April 6. Saturday Morning at eight o'Clock, Theodore Gardelle, convicted for the Murder of the late Mrs. King, of Leicester-Fields, being in the Chapel of Newgate, after Prayers made an ample Confession of his Guilt, and the shocking Manner

Manner of perpetrating it: He seemed very penitent and resigned; and notwithstanding his former Vaunt, that he should meet Death without Terror, on his Irons being taken off he seemed greatly daunted, and changed Countenance, talked a good deal to his Friends in his Mother Tongue (speaking little of the English) and seemed most affected with the Thoughts of being hanged in Chains; for it is said he flattered himself that his Body, after Infection, through Interest, would have been buried. Upon his getting into the Cart, some of the Populace forgot their Christian Profession, some by hallowing, and others by hissing the miserable guilty Wretch, which he seemed to despise. He was carried in a Cart down the Old Bailey, through Fleet-Street, and the Strand, to Leicester Square, opposite the House where he committed the Murder, there it stoped for two or three Minutes, and the Prisoner just looked up at the Building, the Mob thereupon gave a Shout and Huzza of Contempt; after which they proceeded to the Gallows erected in the Haymarket, when the Prisoner helped to fix the Knot, and drew it tight; then the Ordinary prayed with him for near an Hour, during which he trembled greatly; about Ten he was turn'd off, and when dead was hung in Chains on Finchley Common.

BOSTON, June 29.

We learn from New-London, that a Letter is transmitted there from Cape-François, which gives an Account, that about the Middle of May, a French 74 Gun Ship had taken an English Frigate, and 8 or 10 Merchantmen, off the Bite of Leoganne. They were bound from England to Jamaica.

NEW-YORK, July 2.

Captain Lyell, from Fyal, informs us, That about the 23d of April they had a Shock of an Earthquake at those Islands, in which a Vulcano in the Island Tercera broke out with a fiery Eruption, from whence issued a Stream or River of burning Matter, which ran, in about 20 Days, upwards of a Mile, overturning and destroying every Thing in its Way, to the utter Ruin of several valuable Plantations.

He also acquaints us, that a new Providore, or Commercial Judge of these Islands, had lately arrived at Fyal from Lisbon, who takes every Method possible to distress the English; and if a Vessel only happens to touch there, upon any Account whatsoever, he compels them to unload, and to pay the King's Duties; and if they do not dispose of their Cargo, he compels them to pay a farther Duty for the Privilege of taking their own Goods on board again.

July 6. Tuesday Evening last, Capt. Bassett arrived here from Jamaica, in 21 Days, and says, that a Vessel arrived at St. Lucia in said Island, in a short Passage from Gibraltar, the 8th of June, and reported, that a Fleet from England for Gibraltar, with their Convoy, a Ship of 20 Guns, were all lately taken by some French Men of War in the Channel; and that it was currently reported at Gibraltar, that three or four French Men of War had lately been taken in the Mediterranean, by the English Fleet on that Station.

Last Monday off Sandy-Hook, Captain Bassett was chased by a Ship, which he imagined wanted to speak with him, but as soon as a Pilot stood out to meet her, she tacked and put out to Sea directly. Next Day the same Ship appeared off the Hook, and gave Chase to the Ship Grace, Captain Chambers, and Capt. Sheldon, both outward bound.

The same Ship was again seen off the Hook on Wednesday, and 'tis supposed is an Enemy.

Friday Evening last, Samuel Hindshaw, late Master of the Brig Columbine, of this Port, came to Town from Rhode-Island, in Company with Captain Messenger, late of a Ship belonging to London, and from the former we have the following Account, viz. That he sailed from New-Providance the 6th of June last, and on the 16th of the same Month, in Lat. 37, and Lon. 74, in 25 Fathom Water, was taken by a French Privateer Sloop of 16 Guns, and 120 Men, from Martinico, Monsieur Duett, Commander; that on the 14th (two Days before Capt Hindshaw was taken) they took Captain Messenger, above-mentioned, in a Ship from the Isle of Man, for Virginia, of 10 Guns and 15 Men, after an Engagement of an Hour, in which several Frenchmen were killed, and Capt. Messenger slightly, and his Mate mortally wounded; that the latter was taken on board the Privateer, for the Benefit of a Doctor, and after they had put Capt. Messenger's Guns on board Capt. Hindshaw's Brig, and fitted her out as a Tender, they sunk the Ship, with all her Cargo (Salt) on board; that they afterwards took a Whaler, which the Captain ransomed for 400 Dollars, took all the English Prisoners on board, and with them arrived safe at Rhode-Island. When Capt. Hindshaw left the Privateer, she was in Chase of six Sail, steering S. S. E.

A few Days before the Privateer took the above-mentioned Vessels, she fell in with a Letter of Marque Brig from the Continent, that engaged her for several Hours, killed five of her Men, wounded many of her Officers, and got clear off.

Whilst Captain Hindshaw was on board the Privateer, he learnt that there were two other Privateers from Martinico, supposed to be on the Coast by this Time.

PHILADELPHIA, July 9.

A Captain of a Vessel arrived at New-York from St. Croix, reports, That when Lord Rollo appeared off of Dominico (one of the Neutral Islands) the Commandant came on board, to know what Terms he would give him; but that soon after a Message was sent from the Merchants, and other Inhabitants, acquainting him, they would agree to none; upon which his Lordship detained the Commandant, made good his Landing, with the Loss of only seven Men, and obliged the Fort to surrender.

Yesterday a Sloop arrived here from Quebec, out above five Weeks.—No Men of War had got up when this Vessel failed.—The Garrison very healthy.

ANNAPOLIS, July 16.

The Ship Willson, Captain Johnson, with whom went Passenger the Hon. DANIEL DULANY, Esq; for London, was met in the Bay below the Mouth of Rappahannock on Tuesday last.

One Day last Week, as Mrs. Hearn, who liv'd in Worcester County, was standing near the Chimney of her House, in the Time of a Thunder Gust, making Punch for some Reapers, a Flash of Lightning came down the Chimney and struck her instantaneously Dead.

Last Wednesday the Ship Fishbourne, Captain Ethbrington, lying in Patuxent, was struck with Lightning. The Main-top-gallant Mast was tore to Pieces, the Main-top Mast much Split, and the Mainmast wounded in 6 or 8 Places, and three of the Men stunn'd, but they soon recovered.

A Copy of a Letter from Dr. RICHARD BROOKE, to the Printers of this Gazette.

GENTLEMEN,

THE good Effects of JAMES'S WATERS are too notorious in the Country to be now doubted; but the excessive high Price he sells them at, renders it impracticable for many indigent People, under the deplorable Circumstances that those Waters are known to be efficacious in, to procure them. This Receipt you published last Year in your Almanack; but as the Simples are not described, the People know no other way of coming at them but by applying to a Doctor's Shop; which, in some Measure, frustrates the good Effects that the poorer Sort of People might otherwise receive. I flatter myself that the following Communication will give you Pleasure, as it will gratify your benevolent Dispositions. You may observe that twice in your Receipt, dry China Root is mentioned; by which it is certain the China of this Country is meant. The indefatigable and ingenious Mr. Bartram, of Pennsylvania, in his Return last Year from South-Carolina, told me, that the bulbous Part of the Root of the common green Brier was what Howard there used.

The Sassa-parilla is a common Plant in the Country. It grows very plentifully in Frederick County, and is there called the Highland Sassa-parilla. It grows very much like the Ginseng, inasmuch that I have often mistook the one for the other. What is commonly known by the Name of Sassa-parilla down here, is a Creeper, grows in low Grounds, has a bitter Taste, and no way a-kin to the true Sassa-parilla.

N. B. It is evident from the Taste of James's Decoction, that he never uses the Gum Guaiacum in it.

CUSTOM-HOUSE, ANNAPOLIS, Enter'd, Schooner Good Intent, John French, from New-York;

Snow Peggy, George Wardle, from London, via Rhode-Island;

Cleared for Departure, Brigantine Anson, Richard Blake, for New-York; Sloop Betsey and Nancy, William Warner, for Wilmington.

We received by Mr. Mears, Post-Rider, a few Weeks since, an Advertisement of a Stray taken up, which we were paid for; but the Copy was by some Accident lost out of the Office: As we have forgot the Person's Name who sent it, we have no other Method than this, to acquaint him, that if he will send another, it shall be immediately inserted. It came either from the upper Part of Baltimore, or some Part of Cecil.

RELIGION, the crowning Excellence of intelligent Nature, claims the Approbation and close Attention of every reasonable Being, who expects future Bliss. We are bound from Principles of Gratitude and Interest to promote the Honour and Worship of the supreme Mind, as necessary to our own Prosperity, the Good of Society, and future Happiness of Man. Animated by these interesting Motives, we, of the Presbyterian Persuasion in this Town, desire, not from Party Views, but from real Principle, to purchase a Lot of Ground to erect a decent Church for Divine Service, in which we may worship GOD according to our Consciences. Upon Enquiry we find ourselves as yet insufficient to raise such a Sum as is necessary to accomplish such an important Design, beg Leave therefore to solicit the Generosity of our Fellow-Christians to assist and encourage us in completing a small Lottery, at a Time when the Benevolence of our Countrymen is so well tried in this Way. We hope our Claim to the public Attention is equal to any that has solicited their Notice, and humbly expect that we shall meet with general Encouragement.

TEN PISTOLES REWARD.

RAN away from his BAIL on the 24th Day of June last, from Accomack County in Virginia, a certain JOHN MANBY, Esq; Collector of his Majesty's Customs on the Eastern Shore of Virginia, about 50 Years of Age; he says he was born in York-shire in England, but has a Wife in London, where he had been some Time an Officer in the Customs; he is a middle-fiz'd well-made Man, has a high Roman Nose, full Eyes, and a little pitted with the Small-Pox. He is very talkative, and avails himself much of his Acquaintance with many of the best Personages in Great-Britain. He says he has a Son, an Officer in some of the Foot Regiments now in England. He had along with him a Negro Boy, African born, but now speaks pretty good English, about 12 or 14 Years old, and named Peter; tho' both Master and Man will probably change their Names. He took with him a great many good Cloaths, and may pass for a military Man, a Custom-House Officer, or any other Character that will gain him Credit with Strangers, as he is able to form a very artful Story, and is well acquainted in the World. It is thought he will try to reach New-York, or some other Sea Port, where he may get a ready Passage to Great-Britain, or towards Canada, by the Way of Albany, as he pretends an Acquaintance with General Gage. Whoever secures said Runaway, so that the Subscriber may have him again, shall be entitled to the above Reward, from Abraham Mitchell, of the City of Philadelphia, Merchant, or from JAMES HENRY.

N. B. All Matters of Vessels are forbid to carry him off at their Peril.
